IN GALLERY 1

“WET”

A group show of images that explore the dark recesses of the deep blue "O"

Faith Adams, Carla Goldberg, Russell Ritell and Melissa Schlobohm have created a pod of sea creatures that haunt the ocean depths.

The exhibit features ceramics, drawings, paintings, sculpture and prints by masters in their mediums.

IN THE BEACON ROOM

Eva Drizhal “Enigma”

Artists Statement:

NATURE IS MY MAJOR INSPIRATION

“Rooted in the European culture, my earlier works specialized in weaving, then illustrations and paintings. In black and white drawings, I expressed my political views. Obsessiveness for details led my creativity to 3-D objects inspired by images of close-ups of nature, such as seeds, pollen, etc. I am working with paperclay and other organic material, using all kinds of acrylic colors to evoke in viewers not only visual aspects but also a touch.”

Eva was born in Prague and immigrated to the United States in 1979. She lives and produces her artwork in Calicoon, NY.

GALLERY 2

A new group show of works by BAU artists

BAU Mission Statement

Beacon Artist Union (bau) is a fine art gallery and project space.

bau is a platform for members/artists to experiment, grow, exhibit and market their work, encourage collaborative curatorial projects, host invitationals, building a vital link between the activities at bau and the community.

This is the 172nd consecutive exhibition at BAU Gallery.
