Bau gallery is proud to announce our quadruple slam of talented and inventive new faces to our growing list of represented artists. Introducing:

Jebah Baum, Elizabeth Arnold, Ilse Schreiber-Noll, Andrew Rust Barger

Gallery 1 will feature a sampling of work from our newest artists.

BAU Gallery has always emphasized complete freedom for its artists to experiment and try new ideas, expand on themes and present new works. BAU is a place for artists to grow and our new members fit right in with our philosophy. They are experimenters and we look forward to seeing what Jebah, Elizabeth, Ilse and Andrew will surprise our audiences with every successive exhibition they will participate in.
