"Form, Space and Color"

Sculpture by David Link

Inspired by the Minimalist Art Movement of the 1970s, David seeks to continue in the tradition of "Less is More," where harmony, peace of mind, and balance combine like the statues of Buddha in meditation. Effective use of color and negative space further enhance the strength and power of his work.

In Gallery Two

This month Gallery two will contain a variety of work by our represented artists.

The Beacon Room

Eleanor White: "Ace of Spades"

Eleanor White's exhibition in Bau's Beacon room will pay homage to the ace of spades in several artworks that explore this beautiful and multi-faceted symbol. This work transforms materials such as playing cards and found objects into unique works of art.
