Julie Jacobs & Melissa Schlobhom: Past Imperfect

Both artists admire each other's work and in this exhibition effectively meld their separate mediums into single images. Using imagery of waking nightmares, objects of obsession and unsettling beauty, their collaboration confronts both profound loss and shared experiences of childhood and nostalgia. Their artistic alliance explores the reoccurrence of the past in the present, and the subjectivity of visions lying at the heart of memory.

Rob Penner is an accomplished photographer in both the commercial and artistic arenas. His exceptional technical skills along with his master eye allow him to pursue his fascination with everyday objects and interpret them with such perfect minimalism that the object itself becomes a work of fine art.
