Gallery 1

August 2019

Opening reception Saturday, August 10th, 6pm-9pm.

Faith Adams

Swarm

Ceramics artist and returning BAU member, Faith Adams will be showing a series of 50+ wheel thrown porcelain plates and several tea sets. Her new work features a collection of screen printed and hand detailed insects; some admired and beloved, some feared and reviled. All have been imperiled by us. The insects featured are native or present in North America and most are deemed threatened or endangered

The Beacon Room

Cali Gorevic

Arborealis

Cali Gorevic will be showing her favorite black and white photographs of trees, some new, some going back as far as 25 years, as well as several sculptures of my human trees. These are taken the old fashioned way with camera. Film and developed in the darkroom.
